

UNISON STEWARDS

What do stewards do?

- They are the first point of contact for members in a workplace
- Talk to colleagues about the union and encourage them to join
- Build membership to establish an organised workplace
- Offer support and advice to members on workplace issues
- Raise members issues with the branch
- Represent members (once trained) including at disciplinary and grievance hearings
- Campaign for better working conditions

**UNISON provides free training and support for the role****

Stewards in workplaces that are recognised by the employer have rights for time off for training and to carry out their duties.

GOLDSMITHS NEEDS YOU!

Without STEWARDS there would be no one to act as a link between members and the union, to organise and support people in the workplace.

THAT STEWARD COULD BE YOU!
