

STILL FIGHTING BACK

LONDON RECLAIM THE NIGHT 2021

A MARCH TO END MALE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN.

Saturday 27th November 2021 - Assemble at 6pm in Central London for a women-only march

<http://www.reclaimthenight.co.uk>

LONDON RECLAIM THE NIGHT 2021

To mark the United Nations International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women, take to the streets and demand justice for rape survivors, freedom from harassment, and an end to all forms of male violence. Join Reclaim the Night 2021!

WHY RECLAIM THE NIGHT?

- Nearly 1 in 3 women in the UK will experience domestic abuse in their lifetime
- Every year around 400,000 women are sexually assaulted and 80,000 women are raped
- Around 66,000 women are living with FGM in England & Wales, and 20,000 girls are at risk
- 79% of women aged 18-24 recently reported that sexual harassment was 'the norm' on nights out.
- The NSPCC found that teenage girls aged 13-15 were as likely to experience abusive relationships as women aged 16 or more
- Two women are murdered by their partners or ex-partners every week

Reclaim The Night remains as relevant now as it did in 1977 when the first marches took place in the UK.

The women only march will be followed by a rally which is open to everyone. Boys aged 12 or less can attend the march with a female guardian.

Keep up to date with the latest details including any changes due to restrictions in place due to COVID at: www.reclaimthenight.co.uk

Supporters include: Trades Union Congress, End Violence Against Women Coalition, GMB, Object, NUS Women's Campaign, Truth about Rape, Demand Change, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Refuge, Equality Now, Women's Aid Federation of England, Iranian and Kurdish Women's Rights Organisation, Forward, Abortion Rights, Women's National Commission, Against Violence and Abuse, Musicians' Union, Women's Resource Centre, Southall Black Sisters, University and College Union, Liliith Project, Vera Media, White Ribbon Campaign UK, Apna Haq, Transport for London, Emma Humphreys Memorial Prize, Justice for Women

Reclaim The Night has always been a safe event, but we must remind you that all participants take part at their own risk. Follow any instructions given by stewards. The police will not necessarily be in attendance. You will need to follow any relevant COVID guidelines in place at the time of the march, and to keep sufficient space between yourself and other marchers